(disambiguation).Neuroendocrine tumors of the pancreas.

Neuroendocrine tumors of the pancreas are rare tumors.

Diagnosis is challenging and often difficult because neuroendocrine tumors share many common clinical and pathologic features with other pancreatic neoplasms.

Neuroendocrine tumors cause complex clinical syndromes and sometimes are accompanied by an increase in serum levels of the hormones that they produce. Current treatment includes complete surgical resection, followed by liver metastasectomy and/or radiofrequency ablation for unresectable tumors. English: Romanian: Stai cu noi pentru
