

TUN | O M S G A

RESOLUTION OMSGGA XXX
JANUARY 22, 2007

Meeting
Date

SUBJECT: TUN SIGNAGE
SUBMITTED BY: PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE
REFERRED TO: OMSGGA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Resolutions need to go through the appropriate
VP

STATUS: Should begin with "Whereas" and comma OR "Resolved" and comma

Each line ends with a semicolon and "and"
EXCEPT the last "Whereas"
line, which has a semicolon and "therefore be it." If there is more than one
"Resolved" line, all but the last one has a semicolon and
"therefore be it."

- 1 WHEREAS, Touro University Nevada (TUN) is newly established in the community; and
- 2 WHEREAS, TUN is continually working to gain strong presence in the community; and
- 3 WHEREAS, proper signage is useful for informing motorists of TUN's existence and serves to direct visitors to campus; therefore be it
- 4 RESOLVED, that the OMSGGA contact the appropriate bodies to request TUN exit information on 215 and 515 highways and at the Gibson and American Pacific intersection.

↑ ↑
Follow the alignment

Note to the writer:

- Please read your resolution CAREFULLY to check for spelling and grammatical errors BEFORE you submit it to the VP of Communications.
- Touro's Alphabet Soup:
  - TC- Touro College, our parent institution in New York
  - TU- Touro University, Touro University California and its branch campuses (all programs)
  - TUC- Touro University California (all programs)
  - TUN – Touro University Nevada (all programs)
  - TUCOM- Touro University College of Osteopathic Medicine (all osteopathic programs)
  - TUCOM-CA – Touro University College of Osteopathic Medicine- California
  - TUNCOM- Touro University Nevada College of Osteopathic Medicine